

Public Accountant Firm Permits

Firm permits to practice public accountancy as public accounting firms are issued under the authority of SDCL 36-20A-17. SDCL 36-20A-1 (3) defines a "firm" as a sole proprietor, a corporation, limited liability company or a partnership. Effective July 1, 1995, a partnership also includes limited liability partnerships. Any individual practicing public accountancy in South Dakota must hold an individual permit and the firm must hold a firm permit to practice.
